Course Description

Online@State Orientation provides new Mississippi State University distance students the opportunity to use the course management system (Canvas), discover the many student services that are available, and learn about MSU's policies and procedures. The four-day course should take students approximately 30 minutes to an hour each day to complete.

Course Objectives

- Students will review the syllabus and identify important course requirements by completing a syllabus quiz.
- Students will navigate MSU's website to identify what student services and support offices are available and complete a quiz.
- Students will demonstrate the mastery of navigating Canvas by participating in discussion forums, quizzes, and submitting assignments.
- Students will analyze their readiness for online learning by completing the eLearnReady assessment and submitting a reflection paragraph.
- Students will interpret the significance of the MSU Honor Code by reviewing the code and posting in the discussion forum.
- Students will discover the vast resources offered to them by MSU's Library and complete an online scavenger hunt and quiz.

Textbook

No textbook is required for this course. All course materials will be available online within Canvas.

Course Structure

This course is delivered entirely online through the course management system, Canvas. You will use your MSU NetID and NetPassword to login to the course at canvas.msstate.edu.

In Canvas, you will access online assignments, course materials, and resources. Activities will consist of discussion forums, quizzes, and lectures.

Technical Assistance

If you need technical assistance at any time during the course or to report a problem with Canvas, you should contact the Center for Distance Education help desk at help@online.msstate.edu or by calling 662.325.0278.

Participation

Students are expected to participate in all online activities as listed in the syllabus. Students should access the course each day to check announcements, email, assignments, etc. Each day's assignments should only take approximately 30 minutes to an hour to complete.

Build Rapport

If you find that you have any trouble keeping up with assignments or other aspects of the course, make sure you let your instructor know as early as possible. As you will find, building rapport and effective relationships are key to becoming an effective student. Make sure that you are proactive in informing your instructor when difficulties arise during the semester so that we can help you find a solution.

Assignment Expectations

All assignments for this course will be submitted electronically through Canvas unless otherwise instructed. Missing assignments will affect the student's grade.

Introduction – Discussion Board Posts (100 points)

Create a new blog entry to introduce yourself to the instructor and classmates. You are also required to reply to at least two (2) of your classmates' introductory posts.

Discussion Board Posts (200 points)

You are required to interact with your instructor and classmates on two (2) additional discussion board forums; Students Services and Honor Code. Please use proper grammar, punctuation, and appropriate and relevant content.

Quizzes (400 points)

There will be four (4) quizzes given throughout the course. You should watch the videos and read the provided documents to obtain the knowledge needed to pass the quizzes.

Reflection Paragraph (300 points)

After completing the eLearnReady Assessment, you will write a paragraph about what you learned about yourself and submit it within Canvas. The paragraph should be formatted as follows:

- Saved as a PDF or Word document
- Saved using the following file name – “eLearnReady_LastName” (ex: eLearnReady_Bailey)
- Single-spaced
- Times Roman Numeral font (12 point)
- Centered heading that includes your name, the title of your reflection, and the semester/year

Accommodations

If you have a documented disability and require accommodations, please contact the office of Student Support Services at 662.325.3335 or by email at blv24@msstate.edu.

Commit to Integrity

As a student in this course (and at this university), you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, integrity, and commitment to active learning and participation in and out of the classroom.

MSU Honor Code

“As a Mississippi State University student I will conduct myself with honor and integrity at all times. I will not lie, cheat, or steal, nor will I accept the actions of those who do.”

Important Note: Any form of academic dishonesty, including cheating and plagiarism, may be reported to the Office of Student Affairs.
